FINANCIAL REPORT:

M. Martino presented the Treasure Report to approve the 2022 Budget.

The 2022 budget had no findings and was sent for review to the Commission in advance of this meeting. Gerry Lichterman motioned to approve the 2022 budget and expenditures, second by Paul Loaiza and was unanimously approved. M. Martino noted funds are available for projects and to let us know if there are any projects that needed to be discussed. P & L had $85,000 in carryover funds from 2020. Cost allocations will change on the Personnel side due to the PPP Loan absorbing most of the costs during the last six months. Rent funds was also absorbed by the PPP Loan and will need to be reallocated to other categories/programs.

SOLE SERVICE PROVIDER and SCOPE OF SERVICE: The Committee will retain the LVECC as the Sole Service Provider and retain the current Scope of Service by Gerry Lichterman and seconded by G. Lichterman was unanimously approved.

SOLE SERVICE PROVIDER UPDATES:

SECURITY: M. Martino noted Security has been working in the SSA areas. A discussion ensued to ensure that they are moving people along and defusing any issues in the area.

PERSONNEL UPDATES: M. Martino stated new personnel has been hired to assist with SSA programs. LVECC is currently seeking to hire a Marketing Manager.

MAINTENANCE PROGRAM: The maintenance crew has been performing daily route cleanings and the manager is working on adjusting schedules to accommodate businesses. They are also working on cleaning up graffiti on concrete surfaces – a service contract with Pressure Washing Systems will be sent under separate cover and presented during a separate meeting for additional items that need to be discussed.

MARKETING AND PROMOTIONS:

STAYCATION PASSPORTS: We continue to promote local businesses and the Staycation passports have been well received by customers as well as local businesses that participated.

BELMONT SHEFFIELD MUSIC FEST: M. Martino mentioned the upcoming festival this weekend is running from July 16 – 18 and noted that it should bring much needed commerce to the area businesses.
